Dear Valued Customers/Partners,

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS REGARDING RECENT EMAILS TARGETING FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS AND PAYMENTS TO THE PROCURRI GROUP OF COMPANIES

This notice is meant as a reminder and awareness communication to you relating to some recent incidences regarding strange emails and/or letters from unknown sources impersonating Procurri with the fraudulent criminal intent to disrupt Procurri's legitimate financial transactions with our customer and partners, eventually jeopardizing our credibility for business transactions and our reputation.

Such fraudulent transactions are typically initiated via email and/or other written communication in relation to business transactions in order to alter the payment information and instructions by describing various administrative reasons for such changes and then requesting you to make the said changes to the company name and/or bank account(s) for financial transactions/payments. These fraudulent communications are in no way affiliated with the Procurri Group of companies; they should be completely disregarded and notified to your Procurri representative immediately.

We would like to inform you that we do not issue and/or send such emails or communications to any customer, partner, buyer or trader for instructions to make any payment, remittance or money transfer changes to any other company name, address and bank account. All payments are only made to Procurri accounts. Our current payment instructions/details are clearly stated in our invoices and monthly statement of accounts sent to you.

Any changes to such payment instructions/details will be reflected in the latest invoices and/or statement of accounts so please refer to them regularly. Should you receive any emails and/or other communications with regards to the change of bank account or any payment instructions/details, please contact your Procurri representative and/or our Finance team to verify such information before processing any payment. Our contact information can be found on our website at www.procurri.com.

Please keep this information for future reference and please do not hesitate to contact us should you have further inquiries. Do visit our website to verify the genuineness of this official letter, news and development regarding these concerns or contact us directly at [email address].
